Merry Christmas from Heart Sounds International!

CELEBRATING TEN YEARS

The adventures of Heart Sounds International began some ten years ago when a request came from a well-known statesman in missions to start a global fellowship which would connect people involved in ethnic worship and the arts. That sparked the idea to set up recording studios for believers in restricted parts of the world so that they could record and distribute their own indigenous Christian worship songs.

Before long a team from Operation Mobilization helped set up two modest recording studios in Central Asia. Local recording engineers started producing their own recordings and soon the songs were beamed back into their countries by short wave missionary radio. Next, teams went to North Africa and then into other parts of Africa, Asia, Middle East, Central America, and other countries. In 2000 we named our growing fellowship of missionary musicians and recording engineers Heart Sounds International.

HSI TEAMS GEAR UP FOR TRAVEL

For 2008, HSI teams are preparing for trips to Malta, Tunisia, Philippines, Myanmar, Siberia, India, Malawi and Mongolia. Many of these teams need recording engineers, worship seminar teachers, photographers, videographers, and intercessors. Contact Frank Fortunato fort@heart-sounds.org for more information about connecting with one or more of our overseas projects.

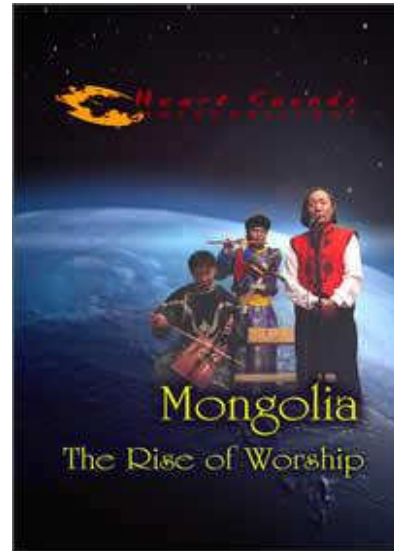

Our heartbeat at HSI is for biblically appropriate and culturally relevant heart worship in places where Christ-followers are restricted, persecuted or unknown. Would you like to see and hear what that's all about? Take a world tour with HSI teams via the HSI Video Broadcast Channel - <http://www.youtube.com/user/HSIOM>.

FREE DVD!

If you got too busy in the holiday rush to order your free documentary DVD of HSI's ministry in Mongolia, our offer still stands until the end of the year. If any project captures the heartbeat of HSI in our first ten years of ministry, it is this DVD – Mongolia: The Rise of Worship. Send us your mailing address and we will send you the Mongolia DVD. Write to: info@heart-sounds.org.

May Jesus be yours (and may you be His) in the coming year,

Frank Fortunato
HSI Coordinator
